Term 4 19th October Covid Update

2021

Dear Parents and Students

Well, it was not the news that we were all hoping for but everyone's safety does come first. Ballet classes will go ahead as soon as when we are back in Level 2. Thanks to students who have practiced their dancing throughout the entire lockdown. Also, thanks to the parents for their patience and encouragement to continue with your dance practice, I know it's not always easy to keep focused at home. Remember to do some stretching as well as keeping up your fitness levels. This will make the transition back into dance classes much easier.

Royal Academy of Dance Exam Up Date

I have made the decision to postpone our RAD Exams until 2022 due to us being in lockdown since 18th August. There may be a possibility of students sitting exams early in the year, however, they will need at least 6-8 weeks of regular classes in preparation before they would be ready to sit their exams.

100% of the entry fee(s) can be carried over to 2022 to the next exam session by the RAD. Can you please let me know if you are happy to do this? If you require more information let me know. I will be sending the carryover application to the RAD as soon as I have heard back from everyone. At this stage I have no information about any dates.

Fees- At the time we went into lockdown we were 3 weeks into the term, so the balance can be carried over into the next Term if you have already paid for Term 3.
